

PURPOSES & PRINCIPLES of the Unitarian Universalist Association

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the independent web of all existence of which we are a part.

For Children of all Ages

A UU believes.....

1. That each and every person is important.
2. That all people should be treated equally.
3. That our churches are places where all people are accepted and where we keep on learning together.
4. That each person must be free to search for what is true and right in life.
5. That everyone should have a vote about the things that concern them.
6. That we should all work for a peaceful and free world.
7. That we all should care for our planet Earth.
